Assembly District 23 consists of portions of San Mateo and Santa Clara Counties, including the whole Cities of Mountain View, Saratoga, Palo Alto, Pacifica, Los Altos, Campbell, and Half Moon Bay, and the towns of Portola Valley, Los Altos Hills, and Woodside, as well as portions of the Cities of Menlo Park, San Jose, Atherton. Splits were made to balance population while considering communities of interest. This district includes smaller, rural, and agricultural communities, mostly along the coast, together with Silicon Valley communities. These communities are bound by the shared Caltrain transportation system, the 101 transit corridor, and parks and recreation areas in the Santa Cruz mountains.

Assembly District 24 consists of portions of Santa Clara and Alameda Counties, including the whole Cities of Milpitas, Fremont, and Newark, and portions of the City of San Jose, which was split to balance population while considering communities of interest. This district includes a large immigrant Asian American Pacific Islander community that shares deep cultural and linguistic ties. Many people in this district are employed in the tech industry and rely on Highway 680 to get to work.

Assembly District 25 Highway 880 to get consists of portions of Santa Clara County, including portions of the City of San Jose. Splits in this district are made to balance population while considering communities of interest, and to meet obligations under Section 2 of the Voting Rights Act in neighboring districts. This district also keeps together communities of interest connected to Berryessa.

Assembly District 26 consists of portions of Santa Clara County, including the whole Cities of Santa Clara, Cupertino, and Sunnyvale, and portions of the City of San Jose. Santa Clara County and the City of San Jose were split to balance population while considering communities of interest. Cities in this district are the heart of Silicon Valley's tech industry, house Apple headquarters, and support the innovation economy. They share concerns about quality of life and feature large immigrant Asian American communities.

Assembly District 28 consists of portions of Santa Clara and Santa Cruz Counties, including the whole Cities of Monte Sereno, Morgan Hill, Scotts Valley, and Santa Cruz, the town of Los Gatos, and portions of the City of San Jose. Splits were made to balance population while considering communities of interest. The district configuration honors Santa Cruz's growing ties with Silicon Valley. The district also features University of California, Santa Cruz and its surrounding community.

Assembly District 29 consists of the whole County of San Benito and portions of Santa Clara, Santa Cruz, and Monterey Counties. This district includes the whole Cities of Hollister, San Juan Bautista, Greenfield, King City, Salinas, Gonzales, Gilroy, and Soledad, and portions of Watsonville. This district is located in areas where there are obligations under Section 2 of the Voting Rights Act. Counties and the City of Watsonville were split to meet these obligations and to balance population while considering communities of interest. This district includes smaller, rural, and agricultural-based communities that are connected to the larger communities of Watsonville and Gilroy. Communities in the Salinas Valley, which are kept together, have shared housing and transportation concerns.

Assembly District 30 consists of portions of Monterey, Santa Cruz, and San Luis Obispo Counties, including the whole Cities of San City, Del Rey Oaks, Morro Bay, Carmel-by-the-Sea, Capitola, Pacific Grove, Atascadero, Seaside, Arroyo Grande, Pismo Beach, Marina, El Paso de Robles (Paso Robles), Monterey, Grover Beach, and San Luis Obispo, and a zero-population split of Watsonville. Splits were made to balance the population and respect communities of interest. This coastal district shares a tourism-based economy and strong ties to higher education institutions, including the Monterey Institute of International Studies and California State University, Monterey Bay.
