A regular meeting shall be held in October of each year, which meeting shall be designated the annual meeting and at which meeting the Board of Directors shall elect officers. The President shall have the right to postpone any annual meetings to a date not more than forty-five (45) days from October 31 of any year by giving written notice to the Secretary of the date selected for such meeting not less than thirty (30) days before such date.

(b) Special Meetings

Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President, or, if the President will be absent or will be unable to act or refuses to act, then by the Vice President or by any five (5) Directors, which call shall be in writing and filed with the Secretary of the Corporation.

- (b) If any Director of the Corporation is absent for three (3) consecutive meetings of the Board of Directors or from five (5) meetings of the Board of Directors in any one calendar year, such Director may be removed from office as a Director at the conclusion of the meeting of the Board of Directors next succeeding the last of such absences. Notice of such three (3) consecutive absences, or five (5) absences in the current calendar year, and of the immediately preceding sentence of these Bylaws shall be included by the Secretary in the Notice of the meeting of the Board of Directors of the Corporation next succeeding such three (3) consecutive absences, or five (5) absences in the current calendar year. The status of such Director shall not be discussed during the general meeting of the Board of Directors. However, prior to the conclusion of any such Board of Directors meeting, an executive session of the Board of Directors shall be convened to consider the status of the Director, and to determine by majority vote whether such Director shall be removed from office. Inasmuch as its subject matter concerns a personnel matter, the executive session shall be private and shall not be available to the public. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this subsection (b), the Board may, by majority vote, on written application by a Director setting forth good cause, therefore, grant such Director a leave of absence not to exceed three (3) consecutive board meetings.

- (c) Whenever a Director is removed, the Secretary shall give written notice of such removal to such Director.

Section 3.13. Vacancies

(a) Occurrence

Vacancies in the Board of Directors shall exist (1) on the death, resignation, or removal of any Director; (2) whenever the size of the Board of Directors is increased; (3) on failure of the Board of Directors to elect the full number of Directors authorized; and (4) upon the declaration by resolution of the Board of Directors of a vacancy in the office of a Director who has been declared of unsound mind by a final order of any court, convicted of a felony or been found by final order of any court to have breached a duty arising under Article 3, Chapter 7, Part 2 of Division 2 of the California Corporations Code (Sections 5230 through 5238). For purposes of this subsection (a), if a Director has been declared of unsound mind by a final order of any court, convicted by a felony or been found by final order of any court to have breached a duty arising under said Article 3 of the California Corporations Code and the Board of Directors does not declare a vacancy in the office of a Director within thirty (30) days after such order of court becomes final, then any Director may file a complaint with the superior court of the proper county to remove such Director from office.

(b) Filling Vacancies

Vacancies caused by the death or resignation of a Director or Directors, or by removal as provided in these Bylaws, or by an increase in the size of the Board of Directors authorized, shall be filled by a majority vote of the Directors then in office, except that a vacancy in the Directorship held by the member of the Service Provider Advisory Committee designated pursuant to Section 3.1(d) hereof shall be filled by election of a new Director designated by said Committee. The person filling a vacancy created by death, resignation or removal as provided by these Bylaws shall serve two years from date of election. The person filling a vacancy shall, if the vacancy is created by an increase in the size of the Board of Directors, hold office until the expiration of the term designated for such office.

(c) Reduction of Number

A reduction in the size of the Board of Directors shall not remove any Director prior to the expiration of his or her term of office.

Section 3.14. No Members Other Than Directors

The persons at the time serving as Directors of the Corporation shall constitute the only members of the Corporation at that time, and there shall be no membership of the Corporation other than the members of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE IV
INDEMNIFICATION

Section 4.1. Definitions

For the purpose of this Article, "agent" means any person who is or was a director, officer, employee, or other agent of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee, or agent of another foreign or domestic Corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise; "proceeding" means any threatened, pending or completed action or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative; and "expenses" includes without limitation attorneys' fees and any expenses of establishing a right to the indemnification under Section 4 or 5(b) of this Article.

Section 4.2. Indemnification in Actions by Third Parties

The Corporation shall have power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any proceeding (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor, an action brought under Section 5233 of the California nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law, or an action brought by the Attorney General or a person granted relator status by the Attorney General for any breach of duty relating to assets held in charitable trust), by reason of the fact that such person is or was an agent of the Corporation, against expenses, judgments, fines, settlements and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred in connection with such proceeding if such person acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the Corporation and, in the case of a criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct of such person was unlawful. The termination of any proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which the person reasonably believed to be in the best interest of the Corporation or that the person had reasonable cause to believe that the person's conduct was unlawful.

Section 4.3. Indemnification in Actions by or in the Right of the Corporation

The Corporation shall have the power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action by or in the right of the Corporation, or brought under Section 5233 of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law, or brought by the Attorney General or a person granted relator status by the Attorney General for breach of duty relating to assets held in charitable trust, to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that such person is or was an agent of the Corporation, against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action if such person acted in good faith, in a manner such person believed to be in the best interests of the Corporation and with such care, including reasonable inquiry, as an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would use under similar circumstances. No indemnifications shall be made under this Section 4.3:

- (a) In respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the Corporation in the performance of such person's duty to the Corporation, unless and only to the extent that the court in which such proceeding is or was pending shall determine upon application that, in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for the expenses which such court shall determine;
- (b) Of amounts paid in settling or otherwise disposing of a threatened or pending action, with or without court approval; or
- (c) Of expenses incurred in defending a threatened or pending action which is settled or otherwise disposed of without court approval unless it is settled with the approval of the Attorney General.

Section 4.4. Indemnification Against Expenses

To the extent that an agent of the Corporation has been successful in the merits in defense of any proceeding referred to in Section 2 or 3 of this Article or in defense of any claim, issue, or matter therein, the agent shall be indemnified against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by the agent in connection therewith.

Section 4.5. Required Determinations

Except as provided in Section 4.5 of this Article IV, any indemnification under this Article shall be made by the Corporation only if authorized in the specified case, upon a determination that indemnifications of the agent has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Sections 4.2 or 4.3 of this Article, by:

- (a) A majority vote of a quorum consisting of Directors who are not parties to such proceeding; or
- (b) The court in which such proceeding is or was pending upon application made by the Corporation or the agent or the attorney or other person rendering services in connection with the defense, whether or not such application by the agent, attorney or other person is opposed by the Corporation.

Section 4.6. Advance of Expenses

Expenses incurred in defending any proceeding may be advanced by the Corporation prior to the final disposition of such proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the agent to repay such amount unless it shall be determined ultimately that the agent is entitled to be indemnified as authorized in this Article.

Section 4.7. Other Indemnification

No provision made by the Corporation to indemnify its or its subsidiary's Directors or officers for the defense of any proceeding, whether contained in the Article of Incorporation, Bylaws, a resolution of Director of the Board, an agreement or otherwise, shall be valid unless consistent with this Article. Nothing contained in this Article shall affect any right to indemnification to which persons other than such Directors and officers may be entitled by contract or otherwise.

Section 4.8. Forms of Indemnification Not Permitted

No indemnification or advance shall be made under this Article, except as provided in Section 4 or 5(b), in any circumstances where it appears:

- (a) That it would be inconsistent with a provision of the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws, or an agreement in effect at the time of the accrual of the alleged cause of action asserted in the proceeding in which the expenses were incurred, or other amounts were paid, which prohibits or otherwise limits indemnification; or
- (b) That it would be inconsistent with any condition expressly imposed by a court in approving a settlement.

Section 4.9. Insurance

The Corporation shall have power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any agent of the Corporation against any liability asserted against or incurred by the agent in such capacity or arising out of the agent's status as such whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify the agent against such liability under the provision of this Article, provided, however, the Corporation shall have no power to purchase and maintain such insurance to indemnify any agent of the Corporation for a violation of Section 5233 of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law.
